

Information and Contact Guide

Advisory Panel

Our Financial Lines policies offer more than just insurance. With our Advisory Panel, you have access to a dedicated panel of industry-leading lawyers*, selected for their expertise in handling the types of claims covered by your policy.

Free Advice

You are entitled to contact a panel member for one hour of free advice per claim on any matter of concern that is relevant to the cover provided under your policy.

Claims Handling Service

If you are unfortunate enough to have a claim made against you, speedy implementation of a sound defence strategy is critical. Our panel firms have been preapproved at preferred rates to defend claims against you which are covered under your policy.

The panel comprises top tier firms selected for their ability to handle complex Professional Indemnity matters. These firms have longstanding relationships with AIG, with at least 5 years and in some cases more than 10 years working with our specialist claims team. Together, we're ready to act without delay when covered claims arise.

How to access these Services

To access the services offered by our advisory panel, simply call or email one of the designated contacts listed. They will direct you to the most appropriate person within their firm to assist you with your particular enquiry.

For more information or queries contact AIG on 09 355 3100 or email finclaims@aig.com

*AIG's Panel comprises leading firms and lawyers including those rated by Legal 500 as Tier 1/leading individuals in this field.
